

the general public is not served with a concentration of ownership. the reality is unavoidable bias, manipulation and, censorship of public airwaves.

more diversity is the only way to protect the general public.

the media must at all times antagonize the selfish interests of that very class which furnishes the larger part of the media income. the media in this country is so thoroughly dominated by the wealthy few that it cannot be depended upon to give the grsats mass of the people that correct information concerning political, economical and social subjects which it is necessary that the mass of peopleshall have in order that they vote in the bess way to protect themselves from the brutal force and chicanery of ruling and employing classes.
